PARISH UPDATE 03/23/2025

Kudos to Jewel White, Head of the Music Ministry, for organizing the first ever Music Workshop in our parish last Saturday, March 15! It was a resounding success. There were 26 participants comprising of children and adults. The resource facilitator for the workshop was Tracy Sanders, a music teacher based in Manitou. The inputs during the workshop include the following topics: (a) The Purpose of Music in the Liturgy, (b) Ministers of Music, (c) Principles for Selecting Music, (d) Music During the Sunday Eucharist & Other Occasions. There was a lot of singing, of course. I was amused at how the young people showed interest on singing traditional Latin hymns, like Salve Regina, the O Salutaris and Tantum Ergo..... Jewel received amazing support for the workshop and she has this to say: "A heartfelt thank you to Kobo & Sia Tuikuka, Cypher & Kitin Cayona, and John Catibog, for stepping up and helping with our music workshop. Your support means the world to me, and I'm deeply grateful. I started the day feeling a bit anxious, wondering how many would come, who could assist, and whether we'd have enough snacks and food. But, God must have heard my prayers, and through the Holy Spirit, He moved generous hearts to lend a hand. The workshop was yet another beautiful reminder of God's unfailing providence."..... Another good news! The Office of the Archbishop has approved our request to enter a loan of $85k at the Access Credit Union for our worshipping space expansion project which consists of tearing down the separating the wall separating the nave and the parish hall and installing a sliding partition. God willing, nobody has to sit near the washrooms, rather everyone will be accommodated comfortably in the expanded worship space during the Easter Triduum liturgies..... While our loan is amortized for 10 years, but we are aiming to pay it in 5 years or less because we want to start in the nearest future the building of a bigger parish hall with additional washrooms and classrooms for our catechism children. I will be formally establishing very soon the parish Fund Raising Committee. If there is anybody else who want to help in this regard, you are most welcome.
