PARISH UPDATE 04/21/2024

I was very much privileged to join with our Ukrainian brothers and sisters in the Divine Liturgy commemorating their 10th founding anniversary last Sunday, April 14. What started as a small group of worshippers in a living room of one of their members has grown into what we now know as the Parish of All Saints of Ukraine. They use our church twice a month for the Divine Liturgy under the pastoral care of Fr. Mykhaylo Khomitsky. The celebration last Sunday was headed by no less than Most Rev. Metropolitan Lawrence Huculak of the Ukrainian Catholic Eparchy of Winnipeg..... I am very grateful for the presence of the Ukrainian Catholic parish community in our church. Their very reverent and beautiful liturgy is an inspiration. Their deep faith in the midst of the grave crisis their motherland is currently facing is exemplary as well..... Every Sunday at the 11 AM Mass, we can feel and see a problem that most parishes would want to have - the need for more worship space due to growing number of parishioners. The urgency of the problem was more palpable during our celebrations during Christmas and the Holy Week Triduum. Another problem is more rooms for our children having catechism classes. To find proximate and also long-term solutions to these problems, I have established the Parish Building Committee. Members of the committee, of the Parish Pastoral Council and of the Parish Finance Council will meet with Archbishop LeGall at our parish hall on April 24th, Wednesday at 7 PM. Relative to this, the Holy Mass on that day is transferred to 10 AM. The members of the Parish Building

Committee are:

- ◆ Scott Beattie
- ◆ Gary Haggerty
- ◆ Denis Magotiaux
- ◆ Rheal LeGall
- ◆ Jason Lopez
- ◆ Marilyn Skubovius
