PARISH UPDATE 04/24/2022 -

Happy Easter to all of you my dear parishioners! Here's an excerpt from Pope Francis Urbi et Orbi message: "Today, more than ever, we hear echoing the Easter proclamation so dear to the Christian East: "Christ is risen! He is truly risen!" Today, more than ever, we need him, at the end of a Lent that has seemed endless. We emerged from two years of pandemic, which took a heavy toll. It was time to come out of the tunnel together, hand in hand, pooling our strengths and resources... Instead, we are showing that we do not yet have within us the spirit of Jesus but the spirit of Cain, who saw Abel not as a brother, but as a rival, and thought about how to eliminate him. We need the crucified and risen Lord so that we can believe in the victory of love, and hope for reconciliation. Today, more than ever, we need him to stand in our midst and repeat to us: 'Peace be with you!'".....

My gratitude to the newly constituted Commission on Worship in our parish! They helped me plan and organize the liturgical celebrations during the Holy Week:

Carole Schofield (Ministry of Lectors), Jewel White (Ministry on Music), Irene Oliviero (Ministry on Devotions & Popular Piety), Gregory Wall (Ministry of Altar Servers). I thank also all those who volunteered to do the Readings, the Altar servers, the cantors, the members of the choir and our parish musicians..... Special thanks to Denis Magotiaux, Esther Thiessen, Marilyn Skubovius, and Monique Rampton of Morden Nurseries & Garden Centre for the decorations and physical arrangement in our church..... There will be no weekday Mass this week (April 25-29) and also next week (May 2-6). I will be on a brief Easter break and then to the Clergy retreat in Pinawa. Do pray for me as I undergo the retreat.

Monthly Prayer Intentions of Pope Francis

Prayer Intention for April, 2022
For health care workers – We pray for health care workers who serve the sick and the elderly, especially in the poorest countries; may they be adequately supported by governments and local communities.

April 24, 2022 - Sunday of Divine Mercy

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies.” Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them.

Those who sincerely say ‘Jesus, I trust in You’ will find comfort in all their anxieties and fears.

There is nothing more man needs than Divine Mercy – that love which is benevolent, which is compassionate, which raises man above his weakness to the infinite heights to the holiness of God.
