PARISH UPDATE 01/01/2023 –

Happy New Year, everyone! May God bless all our endeavours and plans for 2023! Above all, may we grow in our relationship with the Lord every day of the year..... I would like to thank Morden Nurseries and Garden Centre for seeing to it that we have beautiful poinsettias and a splendid tree for our church this Christmas. I thank also Jewel White, Anne del Mundo and Joel Angeles for decorating the tree..... This year we have a new set of Christmas crèche! Thank you so much, Marilyn Skubovius of Stephen Street Wear! I would like to express our thanks also to Esther Thiessen for setting up the crèche. As always, her creativity never fails to amaze us..... I would like to thank our Music Ministry – the accompanists, cantors and choirs. They have done an awesome job not only during the Advent and Christmas liturgies but also the “mini-concert” of Christmas carols before the Night Mass..... Kudos to the Filipino Community in organizing the Simbang Gabi..... Even with minimal practice, our altar servers did an outstanding Mass during the high Mass. Thanks to the kids from the Del Mundo, Solomon, Tiukuka and Centeno families!..... I will take a holiday from January 15 to February 28. It’s been three long years since I have visited my family, so I am very much looking forward to this vacation. Usually priests are allowed only a month of holiday every year. However, His Grace the Archbishop has allowed those who have not taken a holiday since the lockdowns to take a one-time extended vacation.... While I am away, the weekday Mass is cancelled as well as the Sunday evening Mass. Fr. John Te will cover the Saturday 5 PM Mass and the 11 AM Sunday Mass starting on the 15th. If you have an intention for the Mass, do hand it directly to him. Regular church services will resume on March 3, Friday, with the 10 o’clock AM Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Mass and Eucharistic Adoration.

1st Reading – Numbers 6:22-27

22 The LORD said to Moses:

23 “Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them:

24 The LORD bless you and keep you!

25 The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

26 The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

27 So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them.”

2nd Reading – Galatians 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters:

4 When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,

5 to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons.

6 As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, “Abba, Father!”

7 So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

Prayer Intentions of Pope Francis

Prayer Intention for January, 2023

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

"Pray with great confidence, with confidence based upon the goodness and infinite generosity of God and upon the promises of Jesus Christ. God is a spring of living water which flows unceasingly into the hearts of those who pray."-

St. Louis de Montfort

“The secret of happiness is to live moment by moment and to thank God for all that He, in His goodness, sends to us day after day.”
St. Gianna Molla
