PARISH UPDATE 07/17/2022 –

would like to reiterate my request for volunteers to become parish Catechists. There are no special qualifications, just the availability, the fondness for young people, and the eagerness to share the faith. The good thing, I observed in the Church here in the Canada, is that there is no lack of resources – manuals, books, digital media - with regards to imparting the faith. So, it's just a matter of putting these resources to use..... Also, I would like to repeat the invitation to participate in our Parish Family Day celebration next Sunday, July 24. It's a three-phase celebration starting with the 11 AM outdoor Mass (weather permitting). Agape lunch follows. You may bring potluck to share, but there will be hamburgers and hotdogs for everyone. Kindly sign-up so that we can estimate how much stuff to buy..... July 24 is also the 2nd World Day for Grandparents & the Elderly. So, indeed our parish celebration is very coincidental. Pope Francis established the universal celebration last year and to be celebrated every closest Sunday to the feast of Sts. Joachim and Anne (July 26). The theme for this year is: IN OLD AGE THEY WILL STILL BEAR FRUIT. The theme “intends to emphasize how grandparents and the elderly are a value and a gift both for society and for ecclesial communities,” said the communique from the Dicastery for Laity, the Family and Life..... Very importantly, I would like to call your attention to the plenary indulgence is available to everyone who attends Mass or other prayer services on the occasion of World Day for Grandparents & the Elderly. The indulgence can also be applied as a suffrage for the souls in purgatory. To receive the plenary indulgence, which is a full remission of the temporal punishment due for one's sins, a person must: (a) show detachment from sin, (b) go to confession, (c) receive the Eucharist and (d) pray for the intentions of the pope. The indulgence also is available to “the elderly sick and all those who, unable to leave their homes for a serious reason, spiritually join” the celebrations, particularly by watching

RECONCILIATION: Presently only available Saturday and Sunday

Prayer Intention for July, 2022

For the Elderly – We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

on television or the internet or listening on the radio, and “offer to the merciful God their prayers, sorrows and sufferings,” the Vatican said..... In this connection, I would like to remind you that the regular schedule for Confession in our parish is every Saturday (4-5 PM) and Sunday (6-7 PM). Outside of these times, you may call for an appointment.

“Sometimes let us kindle in our souls an ardent affection, considering his great affection towards us, which upon the cross he declared and manifested to the whole world. And the benefit which he bestowed upon us in his passion, because he bought us with the inestimable price of his precious blood, of which only, we reap the benefit and commodity.”

St. Peter of Alcantara

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” Luke 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

Save the date:

Sunday, 24 July 2022, St. John the Evangelist - Parish Family Day, in front of the Church at Minnewasta School Playground, 12 PM, after the 11 AM Mass. Bring your lawn chairs, local dishes, and desserts to share with our fellow parishioners. Feel free to come even if you have attended other mass schedules. Hotdogs and Burgers will be served free. Sign-up sheets for hotdogs and burgers are available at the Parish Foyer or sign-up through this link. Thank you
