PARISH UPDATE 07/24/2022 -

Holiday cycle for priests starts in August. Meaning, priests in the archdiocese may go on a holiday for a month (or 6 weeks since the pandemic) from August to July. Before the new cycle begins, I'd like to use some of my unused vacation days. Therefore, there will be no weekday Mass in the parish from July 25 to 29..... Greetings to all grandparents and seniors in our community on this World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly! Here are some inspiring words for you from Pope Francis on this occasion: "In old age they will still bear fruit (Ps 92:15). These words of the Psalmist are glad tidings, a true "gospel" that we can proclaim to all on this second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. They run counter to what the world thinks about this stage of life, but also to the attitude of grim resignation shown by some of us elderly people, who harbour few expectations for the future. [The] same psalm urges us to persevere in hope. Along with old age and white hairs, God continues to give us the gift of life and to keep us from being overcome by evil. If we trust in him, we will find the strength to praise him still (cf. vv. 14-20). We will come to see that growing old is not a condemnation, but a blessing! Old age is no time to give up and lower the sails, but a season of enduring fruitfulness: a new mission awaits us and bids us look to the future. [W]e are called to be artisans of the revolution of tenderness in our world! Let us do so by learning to make ever more frequent and better use of the most valuable instrument at our disposal and, indeed, the one best suited to our age: prayer. Let us too become, as it were, poets of prayer: let us develop a taste for finding our own words, let us once again take up those taught by the word of God. Our trustful prayer can do a great deal: it can accompany the cry of pain of those who suffer, and it can help change hearts. Let us ask Our Lady, Mother of Tender Love,

RECONCILIATION: Presently only available Saturday and Sunday

Prayer Intention for July, 2022

For the Elderly – We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

The readings for 17th Sunday in Ordinary encourage us to pray and ask God for good things. In the first reading Abraham asks God to spare the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. The psalm sings "Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me." In the second reading Paul reminds us that we have been set free and forgiven in Christ Jesus. In the gospel Jesus teaches his disciples the Our Father and encourages them to be persistent in prayer.

to make all of us artisans of the revolution of tenderness, so that together we can set the world free from the spectre of loneliness and the demon of war." This is just an excerpt. Find the entire beautiful papal message online.....

We pray for the success of Pope Francis' pastoral visit to Canada from today until the 29th. The visit focuses on Indigenous Healing and Reconciliation.

"Do not look forward to what may happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father who cares for you today will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either He will shield you from suffering, or He will give you unflinching strength to bear it.

"Sometimes let us kindle in our souls an ardent affection, considering his great affection towards us, which upon the cross he declared and manifested to the whole world. And the benefit which he bestowed upon us in his passion, because he bought us with the inestimable price of his precious blood, of which only, we reap the benefit and commodity."

"Lord, help me to live this day, quietly, easily. To lean upon Thy great strength, trustfully, restfully. To wait for the unfolding of Thy will, patiently, serenely. To meet others, peacefully, joyously. To face tomorrow, confidently, courageously."
