PARISH UPDATE 06/18/2023 –

I don't know if I should feel proud about it, but we were one of the very few parishes who have had Corpus Christi procession last Sunday. On the other hand, we hope to contribute to making this a trend, and in the future most or all parishes in the archdiocese will do processions especially during Corpus Christi even if it is just inside the church. What is the significance of a procession? Well, firstly, it is a communal expression of piety as we can read in the Bible how the Chosen People marched around the city of Jericho thus conquering it (Jos 6:1-7), also how King David led the procession of the ark of the covenant to Jerusalem (2 Sam 6). Secondly, processions remind us in a mystical way that we are a pilgrim people journeying towards heaven... It was only after I watched the pictures and videos later that I realized how a beautiful witness to our faith was our Corpus Christi procession! Thanks to our First Communicants in their neat attire! Thanks to our very smart altar servers! Without rehearsal, they were able to anticipate and improvise on the liturgical movements. Thanks to Gabbie Hawryshko for scattering flowers along the way for the Blessed Sacrament! Thanks to the canopy bearers! Thanks to Irene Oliviero for borrowing the pretty canopy from St. Claude parish! Thanks to Kitin Cayona for the power point slides and for leading the prayers! Thanks to Cypher Cayona for the portable sound system and for taking videos and pictures of the procession! Thanks to Jerry Dykman, Jewel White and the rest of the members of the music ministry for leading the singing! Thanks to St. John CWL for the cake and cards for the First Communicants!.....Next Sunday will be another significant day for our parish. We will be graced by the visit of Archbishop LeGatt who will administer Holy Confirmation on our young people during the 11 AM Mass. We are expecting a big congregation during that Mass with all the relatives and friends of our confirmandi. We will set up the projector screen in our parish hall for the overflow of people. However, I would like to invite those who do not want to be squeezed in by a crowd to come to the Saturday and Sunday evening Mass.

June 18, 2023 - 11th Sunday of Ordinary Time

“As you go, make this proclamation: ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand.’” Matthew 10:7
Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to “repent.” Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

“It really strikes the heart.”-Archbishop Albert LeGatt.

The memory of the glorious pilgrimage of that immaculate lamb, Christ Jesus, and especially his most holy death and passion, keeping always before the eyes of our minds the presence of his most chaste and virginal humanity. This is the best means for winning each battle, and without it, we will not achieve victory over our enemies. Every other weapon will achieve little without this one which surpasses all the rest. -
