PARISH UPDATE 03/013/2022 –

The Children's Rosary last week was cancelled due to highway conditions. It's transferred to this Tuesday, March 15, at 7 PM. I am inviting all parents with kids to participate. Hopefully the weather and highway conditions will be better this time..... Kudos to the Crafts Group coordinated by Jeannette Warnock for the first one to hand in their answers to the questionnaire on Synodality!..... For this weekend's parish consultation after the Mass, take note of the following instructions: (a) You may choose to answer the questionnaire individually. (b) Much better still, you may answer the questionnaire as a family or you may group among yourselves and share answers noting them in a single questionnaire. (c) You may go to the parish hall or parish conference hall for the sharing. (d) Having completed the questionnaire, you may leave it (and the pen) in the box provided on the table at the church foyer. I thank everyone for your participation..... Those who were not able to come to church this weekend may participate in the parish consultation by downloading the questionnaire from the diocesan website. On the right hand side of the website, click the banner that says Synod of Synods, then click the link that says Fillable PDF Form for Discussion Summaries, download, answer in your computer. When completed, send the questionnaire as email attachment to the parish email – stjohnparishmorden@gmail.com. All completed questionnaires must be in for compilation on or before March 20.

RECONCILIATION: Presently only available Saturday and Sunday

March 13, 2022 - 2nd Sunday of Lent

“I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession.” (GENESIS 15:7)
Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether your home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do you show your gratitude to God for the home He has given you? Do you make a sacrifice of any kind? Do you return any of your finances to God, investing equally in your eternal home just as you invest in your earthly home?

Everyone Welcome
Come out and support our Children

During Lent, the voice of God calls to each of us with these words, ‘Come back to me with all your heart, for I am all tenderness and compassion’. Tempted as we might to give up on others and even ourselves, when we feel or Lenten promises are producing no fruit, God never gives up on each. God calls us by our name and waits, and waits.

First Holy Communion

I have been receiving queries about First Communion and Holy Confirmation for our children. We have not resumed yet the Sunday school and the sacramental preparation classes. However, children may receive First Communion on June 19 which is the Feast of the Corpus Christi if parents will take up the challenge of preparing the children themselves. As I have said before, maybe one of the goods that God wants to bring out from the evil of the pandemic is that parents take seriously their role as first catechists for their children and to really make the home the domestic church..... Parents who want to prepare their children for First Communion should purchase Book Two of the Faith and Life Series titled Jesus Our Life. They must purchase both the text book and the work book which consist of 34 lessons. The parents may read and understand the lessons with their children and allow their children to answer the corresponding exercises on the workbook. The completed workbook will then be submitted to me in the first week of June. Only those who have completed all the lessons will be admitted for First Communion..... The textbook and workbook may be purchased online at www.josephsinspirational.ca.
