Parish Update May 14th , 2022

With abortion and MAiD grabbing so many headlines these days, it is more important than ever that the Christians fulfill their task as prophets and show support for a culture of life. Life Culture Canada is inviting everyone to join the WALK FOR LIFE on May 28 at 10 AM at K.R. Barkman Park in Steinbach..... The Archdiocese will have two new priests! On Saturday, June 4, 2022, Rev. Deacon Paul Nguyen will be ordained at the St. Boniface Cathedral at 10:00 AM. On Friday, July 8, 2022, Rev. Deacon Serge Buissé will be ordained at the St. Boniface Cathedral at 7:00 PM. Everybody is invited to attend especially those who have yet to witness an ordination. Let us pray for the new priests and for more vocations!..... Now, the highlights from the parish consultation on synodality - Question 3: In our parish, what hinders parishioners and those who suffer from speaking openly and being accompanied on their respective journeys? Answer: A majority of the respondents confided that fear of criticism, prejudice and bias is the primary hindrance for parishioners to speak openly and being accompanied on their respective journeys. Some mentioned lack of opportunities due to the pandemic. Others mentioned different ethnicities and languages in the parish as also a hindrance to openness. Other answers include: (a) Weather disturbances (b) Not comfortable with certain persons (c) Lack of information (d) No time to interact due to several jobs (e) People don't know to whom to talk to (f) Lack of faith conviction / determination. At least one respondent expressed apprehension on the real purpose of synodality that it might result to watering down of the Gospel message.

Monthly Prayer Intentions of Pope Francis

Prayer Intention for May, 2022

For faith-filled young people – We pray for all young people, called to live life to the fullest; may they see in Mary’s life the way to listen, the depth of discernment, the courage that faith generates, and the dedication to service.

“Whatever you do for your family, your children, your husband, your wife, you do for God. All we do, our prayers, our work, our suffering, is for Jesus

It’s a sobering thought to consider that all we do to and for our children and spouse – good and bad – is a reflection of how we treat Jesus every day. I have a card on my refrigerator with a saying from Mother Teresa that correlates with this thought: “At the end of the day, I need to ask myself only two things –

*What did I do to Jesus today?
 What did I do for Jesus today?”*

*We can ask ourselves a variation of this:
 “What did I do to my family today?
 What did I do for my family today?”
 According to Mother Teresa, they are the same question.*

May 15, 2022 - 5th Sunday of Easter
 “I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” (JOHN 13:34)
 “As I have loved you,” this is the hard part – Jesus’s love is unconditional; our love usually comes with strings attached. It is easy to love someone when they love you back. But it takes mercy and compassion to love someone when you feel unappreciated, feel used or feel like your opinion doesn’t matter. It takes courage and the grace of God to “love my neighbor” when they may be someone you don’t like, someone you don’t know or someone that doesn’t look like you.

Pope Francis

“All life has inestimable value even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God’s creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.”
 (Message to Catholics participating in Day for Life in Britain & Ireland, July 28, 2013)

It is a poverty to decide that a child must die so that you may live as you wish.
