PARISH UPDATE 09/25/2022 –

Congratulations to the second batch of First Communicants for 2022! To receive the Lord in the Eucharist for the first time on September 24 during the 5:00 PM Mass are the following:

Carlos Gregory Centeno
Gabriel David
Abrielle Jansen Hipolito
Claire Jhayne Ignacio
Amarra Larrauri
Liam Daniel Ona
Angel Allison Tapeç
Seth Torres
Khristoff Versoza

I would like to congratulate as well the parents of these children for preparing their children to receive the Sacraments of Penance and the Holy Eucharist..... I would like to remind all parents, however, that your mission does not end with First Communion or Confirmation. Nor is it sporadic. A verse from Deuteronomy (6:6-7) comes to mind: “Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today. Drill them into your children. Speak of them at home and abroad, whether you are busy or at rest.” Moses uttered these words on his death bed as a final instruction to the Israelites as they are about to take possession of the Promised Land. He meant to say that if the people want the Lord to bless them as they settle in Canaan, they must resist the influence of the pagan cultures around them. They can do that by passing on the teachings of God to their children. In the same manner, Christian parents must continuously reinforce the teachings of the faith on their children, so that they will be equipped to confront the secular culture around us and always be a blessing to the family and to the community. Parents, enrol your children to the parish Catechism program, take every opportunity to follow-up what they are learning. Above all, bring them always to church so that they will learn from you how to value and love the sacraments.

St. John The Evangelist Music Ministry Update: Hello Everyone!

Starting this weekend, September 24 and 25, there will be a new music ministers (Sunday Music Ministers Group B) that will be led by Dennis Cosio for the Sunday, 11am mass. Sunday Music Ministers Group B will be the music ministers every last Sunday of the month. The rest will be the same.

I would like to thank Kitin Cayona and Monique Rampton for being the music ministers for the Saturday, 5pm mass, Jerry Dykman Al Kolt for being the music ministers for the Sunday, 11am mass ( Sunday Music Ministers Group A) and Anne del Mundo and Irene Oliviero for being the music ministers for Sunday, 7pm mass ( Sunday Music Ministers Group C).

Also, I would like to take this opportunity to encourage everyone to join our music ministry. St. Augustine wrote that one who sings prays twice. Music is one of the important elements of the liturgy. However, the music ministers are not a performer, but a servant, encouraging and leading the people of God in song. If you have a love for music and want to serve our Lord, able to participate on practices and can work as part of the group, please reach out to me or to any of the music ministers. Our congregation is growing and it would be great to see new faces in our music ministry. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask.

September 25, 2022 - 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established...”
Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today’s Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.
